General guidelines in the care of children and young people

It is possible to reduce situations in which abuse, or allegations can occur and to help protect staff/volunteers by promoting good practice. The following are more specific examples of care, which should be taken when working within a sports context:

- Always be public and open when working with children or young people. Avoid situations where you and an individual child or young person are completely unobserved.
- Always treat players in an open environment or, if treatment is required within a closed area ensure parents / carers are aware of this.
- Where appropriate, parents/carers should take on the responsibility for their children or young people in the changing rooms. If groups have to be supervised in the changing rooms, always ensure that managers / coaches work in pairs.
- Where there are mixed teams away from home, they should always be accompanied by a male /female manager/coach.
- When working with children or young players of the opposite sex, coaches must agree with parents/carers when, or if, it is appropriate to enter the changing area. It may be prudent to set a time, for example, 10 minutes before a game when the coach could enter the room accompanied by parents / carers, at least one of which must be of the opposite sex.

- 🕒 Everyone should be aware that you must.
 - 🕒 Spend excessive amounts of time alone with a child / young person.
 - 🕒 Take children or young people alone on car journeys, however short. If you are placed in a position where this happens ensure that the child is seated in the back of the car, and you report this to the Club Welfare Officer.
 - 🕒 Take children or young people to your home where they will be alone with you.
 - 🕒 If cases arise where these situations are unavoidable, they should only occur with the full knowledge and consent of the child's parents/carers.
- 🕒 Adults should never engage in rough, physical or sexually provocative games, including horseplay.
- 🕒 Never share a bedroom with a child or young person

- 🕒 Never do things of a personal nature for children or young people they can do for themselves.
- 🕒 Never invite or allow children or young people to stay with you at your home unsupervised.
- 🕒 Sexual abuse includes situations in which adults/peers use children or young people to meet their own sexual needs.
- 🕒 In the football environment, sexual abuse might also occur when inappropriate physical contact takes place e.g., through inappropriate supporting, treatment or touching of children or young people.

 - 🕒 There is a persistent lack of love, affection or attention shown to a child or young person.
 - 🕒 Children or young people are overprotected preventing them from socialising.
